Write a C++ program to:

1. Show Function Overloading by implementing addition operation.
2. Find the area of different geometrical shapes by implementing function overloading.
3. Implement any five programs from assignment 2 and 3 each using the concept of classes and objects.